25X1 8. [] Met with Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, and discussed plans for the 15 February briefing of the Defense Appropriations Subcommittee. Woodruff recommended that the Director cover a prepared text on the Soviet Union, Communist China, and Southeast Asia, leaving other areas for the question period. He said the Subcommittee was skeptical about recent testimony of Admiral Zumwalt regarding the rapid expansion of the Soviet navy, and Woodruff recommended the Director devote "four or five minutes" to this subject.

Woodruff said he would like to get from [] "within the next week or ten days" a "money and people" paper for FY 1973 on CIA, DIA, NSA and NRO, similar to the paper provided last year.

Woodruff said Chairman Ellender wanted a special briefing on the intelligence community from Mr. Helms and Assistant Secretary of Defense (ISA) Albert Hall in the near future--possibly appearing jointly, although Ellender has not made up his mind on this aspect. Woodruff said that, although he planned to hear from both the Director and Hall, Ellender would probably try to hold the Director responsible for the entire community.

Woodruff expressed concern over the reference to tactical intelligence in the Presidential directive, and I assured him that this was something which we felt strongly had no place in the community picture. Woodruff agreed, noting that excluding the costs of tactical intelligence would help him to cut the figure on community intelligence costs.

25X1 10. [] Lunched with Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, and discussed some problems involving community matters.

25X1 11. [] In response to J. Sourwine's, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, request and in his absence, I spoke with Sam Scott, of the Subcommittee staff, and advised him that according to our information all the Soviet diplomats who were PNGd by Mexico returned to the Soviet Union and are still there.
